JULY 8-9 ARE SUMMER ORIENTATION PROGRAM DATES
AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA IN MISSOULA

MISSOULA--

New students, parents and others who may be interested in visiting the University of Montana are invited to attend the UM "Summer Orientation Program," to be held Thursday and Friday, July 8-9, on the Missoula campus.

Commenting on the University's "Summer Orientation Program," Lois M. Kuni, director of orientation at UM, who also is a counselor for the UM Center for Student Development (CSD), said, "The summer program is designed to help new students become acquainted with the University of Montana, and to assist those who may be undecided about college careers."

New students may preregister for fall quarter classes while attending the orientation sessions July 8-9. A Math Placement Test, required of all students taking Math 104, 107 and 121, will be given at 1 p.m. Thursday, July 8.

New UM students as well as those who may be unsure of college are encouraged to meet with faculty advisers on the UM campus during Summer Orientation. Advisers will be available in the University Center Ballroom from 2-4 p.m. July 8 and 9 a.m.-noon July 9.

Activities during the two-day orientation will include tours of campus buildings, including residence halls, the Library and the Lodge; advising sessions; several workshops, such as "Career Exploration" and "How to Survive College Life"; introduction to student services such as Financial Aids, student government and student Health Services. Orientation participants also will have opportunities for recreation and social activities.

UM

The/Advocates, a student service organization representing the University before the public and high school students, will assist in tours, explain the registration process and meet with students and parents.

Cost of attending Summer Orientation at UM will be $10 per student, which includes a charge for one meal and the cost of the actual orientation sessions. Residence hall charges for each student will be $4 per night; charges for parents will be $5 for a single and $4 for a double room each night. Parents will not be charged for the orientation sessions.

Persons planning to come to UM for the "Summer Orientation Program" are encouraged to send letters of application with the $10 fee to Kuni in care of the UM Center for Student Development, Room 148 of the Lodge, University of Montana, Missoula, Mont. 59801. Checks should be made payable to the University of Montana.

Additional information may be obtained by phoning the CSD office, 243-4711 or 243-2835.
